

Important Message

Dear All, As per recent SEBI guideline, shares held in demat account of the client shall not be considered as equivalent to the collection of margin w.e.f 01-June-2020, so securities to the extent of margin obligation of the respective client shall be fetched from the client's demat account to client collateral account (Margin Account) from our end. So all are requested to guide the client accordingly.